

Project Engineer, Customer Technical Support

Duties include but not limited to:

- Manages all aspects of an Electronics Manufacturing Service project from start to finish and ensures the delivery of quality products to customer on time and within budget.
- Maintains and communicates project status internally and to customer on a regular basis
- Develops and maintains Electronics Manufacturing Assembly aids, routers and shop travelers.
- Assists other departments in all technical aspects of a project.
- Reviews projects regularly to increase manufacturability and efficiency.
- Manages customer change orders.
- Develops good working relationships with customers and suppliers.

Qualifications: (required, must meet before consideration)

- Have 3 years experience in the PCB/CCA contract manufacturing industry.
- Be able to read drawings and bills of material, interpret ECNs
- Have familiarity with the concepts of lean manufacturing, six sigma, SPC, ISO
- Have familiarity with military and industry standards for CCA manufacturing.
- Have excellent communication skills, both verbal and written
- Be able to work effectively with others
- Be able to meet deadlines
- Be very flexible
- Have good computer skills
- Be able to work overtime as necessary depending on deadlines

Qualifications: (Preferred)

- Have excellent organizational and leadership skills
- Have excellent analytical skills
- Be able to understand complex information and requirements
- Be able to prioritize key elements of a project
- Be able to evaluate on-going projects and adapt plans if necessary
- Have a good understanding of business demands
- Be able to work within tight constraints